From the Principal

Hello Everyone!

Concert

Concert is fast approaching. Students have been putting in a fantastic effort during practise and we can't wait for everyone to see their hard work. Notes have been sent home with students in regards to what they need for their costume. Can you please let your child's teacher know as soon as possible if you've had trouble sourcing clothes.

Hot Food Friday

Next Friday P&F will be serving their last hot food Friday for 2022. On offer will be fish fingers, nuggets and chips. Order forms will be sent home with students. Again, thank you to all parent volunteers that have allowed hot food Friday to happen. The students always look forward to a hot lunch.

Last day of term 3

Can you believe that term 3 is nearly over?! Students last day for this term will be Thursday September 15th, the day of the concert.

P&F raffle

Parents and friends have done an amazing job at organising a raffle which will be drawn on the night of the concert. There are some great prizes to be won, including a chainsaw. There is still time to buy a raffle ticket, if you'd like one please contact the office. Tickets will also be available on the night of the concert. The proceeds from the raffle are going towards improving the entrance of the school.

New Arrival

A massive congratulations to Mrs Gallagher and her husband Mark on the safe arrival of their beautiful baby girl, Violet Lindsay Gallagher. We wish you both well on the new adventure of parenthood.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Devotional Thoughts

Living lives of compassion for the poor

by Craig Heidenreich

Even in darkness light dawns for the upright, for those who are gracious and compassionate and righteous (Psalm 112:4).

Read Psalm 112

It is comforting to reflect on the promises of this psalm and that the righteous will never be shaken. Hopefully, that has been your experience.

We live in an era when many Christians seek to uphold standards of righteousness in our fallen world. They highlight issues like abortion and euthanasia or sex education for children as moral battlegrounds and attempt to win through politics.

What sort of Christianity does this reveal to the world? Do people experience compassion when in the company of these groups?

This psalm contains three statements I believe describe what it means to be 'upright'. Verse five says they are 'generous and lend freely', and 'they conduct their affairs with justice'. Then verse nine gives another clue, 'they have freely scattered their gifts to the poor'.

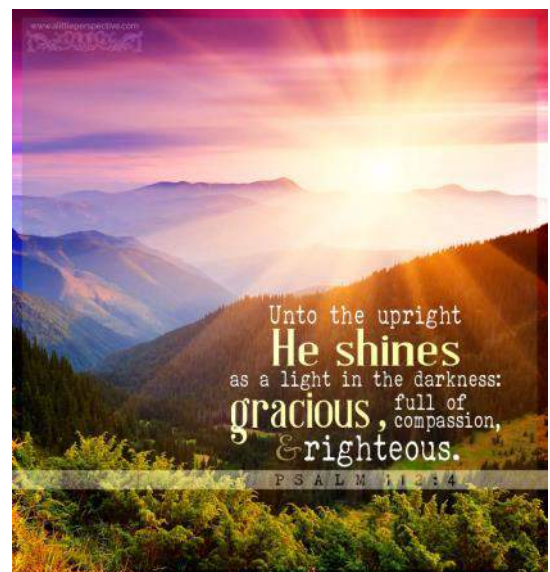

I believe this psalm describes a righteousness shown in how the person treats the 'needy'.

I recently heard a politician say that there are about 3000 passages in Scripture on how we treat the poor in our society – implying that this motivated her in her political life.

If we are honest, it is easier to focus on an issue that will not cost us much personally when our focus should be closer to home.

Verse four speaks of light dawning on those who live a 'gracious and compassionate life'. That is a goal worth pursuing!

Thank you, Lord, for your daily protection. Thank you for blessing us even when we don't deserve it. Help us be gracious and compassionate people who freely scatter gifts to the poor – you are our supply. Amen.
