From The Principal

Hello Everyone!

Mother's Day/ Freestyle Dance Ministry

WOW! What a wonderful morning we've all had at our Mother's Day morning. It was lovely to start the morning with lots of mothers and special guests joining us for a special Mother's Day chapel. The students did a wonderful job at reading out some lovely poems about their mums/special person. Following this we had the great, Justin, from Freestyle Dance Ministry, deliver a Freestyle Dance session for the students and guests. Justin has visited our school for quite a few years now and does an excellent job with our students. He is very upbeat and has the ability to get everyone involved. Once Justin was finished, it was nice to enjoy morning tea with our mums/special guests. Students did a super job at making scones, honey joys and chocolate muffins. Thank you so much to everyone involved and those who attended, we hope you all enjoyed your morning.

DMSC Work Experience students

This week we have been privileged to have two wonderful students join us at school to complete year 10 work experience. Lyla Barry and Emily Taylor, both from DMSC, have spent the week with us between the two classrooms, learning all about what's involved in being a teacher and being a part of our school community. The students are loving having the girls around, especially at recess and lunch times. We hope they've had a fabulous week.

Cross Country

Goodluck to Milla Bartlett who is competing in the next round of Cross Country on Monday in Nhill.

Do It For Dolly Day

Today is Do It For Dolly Day. It was great to see students dress in blue today to remember Dolly. Both classes have completed sessions with Karen, our wellbeing officer, around ways of displaying kindness. Thank you to everyone for your donations this morning during chapel, we raised $75.85, which will all be donated to 'Do It For Dolly Day' Fundraiser.

Victoria Police

On Monday 13th May, a member from the Victorian Police is coming to talk with our year 5/6 students about cyber safety/ cyberbullying. In a world full of technology, I think we need to try our best and try different avenues to educate students around this topic.

Have a great weekend!!

Devotional Thoughts

Ignorance or unawareness? - By Maria Rudloph

One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice (Luke 17:15).

Read Luke 17:11–19

My daughter came home from school with glowing eyes. 'Mum, I had a real God moment today!' I was astonished. 'What happened?', I asked. She told me how she had to go to a room in an unfamiliar part of her large new school and quietly prayed in her head that God could help her find the way and that, next thing, an older student took notice of her and asked whether she needed assistance, and then ended up walking her all the way to where she needed to be. My daughter recognised God's help in that moment and said a quiet prayer of thanks to God. It made me think, how often have I been lost, literally and figuratively, and was gently pointed in the right direction or set on the right path again by God, but failed to recognise it? How often have I failed to give thanks to God when thanks was due? How often have I acted like the nine lepers who didn't return?

The story of these 10 lepers healed by Jesus gives me so much hope. You see, Jesus knew before he healed them all that not all of them would return to give thanks – and healed them anyway. Jesus knew Judas would end up betraying him – but he called, journeyed with and taught him anyway. Sometimes I'm ignorant towards God's goodness to me, but he lavishes blessings upon me regardless. Jesus also did it for the thief on the cross, the soldiers who crucified him, and Saul who persecuted the Christians before he became known as Paul: Jesus embraces, prays for and blesses those who are most unworthy of his love and grace. So radical, so unexpected. So Jesus.

What are you thanking God for right now?

Gracious Jesus, you are gracious, loving and compassionate even when you know I don't deserve it. Grant me the strength and guidance of your Holy Spirit to act graciously, lovingly and compassionately towards others, and to give thanks to you in all circumstances. Amen.

Luke 17:15

And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,
