We acknowledge the Wotjobaluk, Jaadwa, Jadawadjali, Wergaia and Jupagulk People as the traditional owners of this land. We pay our respects to Elders past, present, and future.

From The Principal

Happy first week of term 3!!

Term 3

Welcome back everyone. Term 3 is set to be a good one. I hope that everyone had a fantastic break and are ready to soldier through another term. Some of the extra curriculum events that are happening this term include the senior students heading to Melbourne for camp, hockey 7s, Jeans for Genes Day, Red Nose Day, hospital visits, kinder visits and so much more.

Dentist Van

There has been a change of plans with the Dentist Van visiting the school. Instead of coming in the last week of school, they'll be onsite next week. Students who returned their forms to school will be seen either Thursday or Friday next week.

Mr & Mrs. Munro

On the holidays our junior room teacher Miss. Walker married her childhood sweetheart Charles. Ainslee and Charles got married on Wednesday 3rd July, on their 15-year anniversary. Congratulations to them both. We wish them both lots of love and happiness. The students are adjusting well to the name change of Mrs. Munro.

Have a wonderful weekend

YOU HAVE A CHOICE
EACH AND EVERY SINGLE DAY.

I CHOOSE TO FEEL BLESSED.

I CHOOSE TO FEEL GRATEFUL.

I CHOOSE TO BE EXCITED.

I CHOOSE TO BE THANKFUL.

I CHOOSE TO BE HAPPY.

Devotional Thoughts

More than enough to bear - By Carolyn Ehrlich

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us, for we have had more than enough of contempt (Psalm 123:3).

Read Psalm 123

Have you ever reached the end of your tether? Have you been buffeted by the opinions of others? Experienced scorn and contempt? Bullied in your childhood perhaps? Bullied in your workplace? Frowned upon because you are different somehow?

Your heart aches for some space, for some mercy, to be shown some love. These are hard patches ... wilderness living ... prickles, desert, hot dry winds, drought, thirsting for reprieve, thirsting for love, hungry to be noticed, desperate to be heard, aching to be understood, to be known. Everything feels dry and parched. Wandering, wondering, unseen, unheard.

And yet, there is a place to look, a lament to be made, a cry to be vocalised. It is okay to cry out to God when things are tough. Look up, not in. Look up, not down. Look up, not out. Look to the only One who knows, who has heard, who has experienced. Look to Jesus and cry out. In your despair, look to the Lord our God. Jesus knows. Jesus was scorned. Jesus was treated with contempt. Jesus suffered. Jesus the man-God experienced all the feelings that you are experiencing. He really, truly, extensively knows. He cares. He loves you. He is merciful. He is faithful.

Look to him and cry out:

Have mercy on me, Lord, have mercy on me. My soul has had enough, enough scorn, enough torment, enough contempt. I lift my eyes to you only. Have mercy on me. Amen.

Growing Resilient Kids Workshop

This is a practical solution focused workshop for parents, caregivers, grandparents, and educational staff who connect with young people.

This 2-hour workshop focuses on:

- The brain science behind emotions.
- Learning about the purpose of anxiety and stress (it's not all bad!).
- Increasing understanding of how feelings (e.g., anxiety, stress) impact our thoughts and body (physiology).
- Learning ways to recognise, accept and/or manage unpleasant feelings.
- Practical tips and strategies for supporting young people to cope and persist through challenging moments and feelings.
